Lion in the Valley was pretty good. The "Amelia Peabody" series follows a pretty set formula, but it offers varied settings, interesting protagonists and an archeological flavour that I find very appealing. For some reason the next book won't be available until the end of October, so I'll have to wait to read more.

Lion In The Valley An Amelia Peabody Mystery [EBOOK]

In The Lion In The Valley, we meet up with Amelia Peabody and her husband, Radcliffe Emerson as they set out once again for a dig in Egypt. Their son Ramses, a "catastrophically precocious" 8 year old with an eerie aptitude for languages both ancient and modern, accompanies them for only the 2nd time and promptly gets himself kidnapped.
